 - (d) monies derived from the disposal of or dealing with property held by the Authority;
 - (e) monies borrowed by the Authority in accordance with this Act; and
 - (f) any property lawfully received by or vested in the Authority.
- (2) The funds and resources of the Authority may be applied by the Authority—
- (a) in the payment or discharge of its debts, expenses and other obligations;
 - (b) in the payment of emoluments, fees and allowances payable to the Members and the secretary of the Board and the employees of the Authority; and
 - (c) any contingencies relevant to the furtherance of the functions, duties and powers of the Commission.
- (3) The Authority shall, after making adequate provisions at the end of each quarter of its financial year for—
- (a) the applications of its funds and resources under subsection (2) above;
 - (b) the acquisition, replacement and depreciation of its assets;
 - (c) the repayment of loans and advances and interest and charges thereon; and
 - (d) other payments which the Board deems necessary or desirable for the effective performance of the Authority's functions and discharge of duties; pay out any excess income to the Government's Consolidated Fund.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions made under subsection 3 above, adequate provisions shall be made to ensure that any payment of excess income under the subsection (3) to the Government's Consolidated Fund shall not cause the Commission not to be in a financial position to carry out its duties, functions or powers properly for that financial year or the financial year next ensuing:

(5) The financial year of the Authority shall be for period 1st January to 31st December in each year.

- 13. (1) The Authority shall—
- (a) keep proper books of accounts of its income and other receipts and expenditure; and
 - (b) ensure that—
 - (i) all monies received are properly brought to account;

- (ii) all payments out of its monies are correctly made and properly authorised; and
- (iii) adequate control is maintained over its property and over the incurring of liabilities by the Authority.

(2) The books of account kept under subsection (1) shall be maintained in such form and manner so that they—

- (a) are sufficient to show and correctly explain the Authority's transactions;
- (b) enable the Authority's financial position to be determined with reasonable accuracy at any time; and
- (c) are sufficient to enable the Authority's financial statements to be prepared and audited in accordance with this section.

(3) The Authority shall within 3 months after the end of each financial year prepare and approve accounts in accordance with article 158 of the Constitution, which shall, without limitation contain—

- (a) a statement of the assets and liabilities of the Authority at the end of the financial year;
- (b) a statement of the revenue and expenditure of the Authority during the financial year; and
- (c) proper and adequate explanatory notes to the financial statements.

(4) The accounts of the Authority shall be audited, not later than the 31st of March of each year after the end of each financial year, by the Auditor General in accordance with article 158 of the Constitution.

14. (1) The Authority shall within three months of completion of the audit of its account in respect of any financial year, submit to the Minister—

- (a) a copy of its audited accounts;
- (b) a written report of its operations and activities for that financial year together with a copy of the audited financial statements.

(2) The Minister shall, within 30 days of receiving the Authority's audited accounts, report and audited financial statements, cause them to be laid in the National Assembly.

PART IV - INFORMATION GATHERING AND DISCLOSURE PROVISIONS

15. (1) The Authority may, for the purpose of discharging its functions, request any person engaged in or related to any financial services business to furnish such information as the Authority may specify.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), "related" includes—

- (a) any subsidiary or holding company of the financial services business;
- (b) any director, other officer, employee, agent or contractor of a financial services business;

- (c) any beneficial owner of a financial services business; and
- (d) any other person whom the Board reasonably believes to be in any way connected to a financial services business.

(3) The Authority's power under subsection (1) shall not apply to any information or document which a person would be entitled to refuse to disclose or produce on the grounds of legal professional privilege.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), information or a document comes to a legal practitioner in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to him—

- (a) by its client or a representative of its client in connection with the giving by the legal practitioner of legal advice to the client;
- (b) by a person or representative of a person seeking legal advice from the legal practitioner; or
- (c) by any person—
 - (i) in contemplation of, or in connection with, legal proceedings; and
 - (ii) for the purposes of those proceedings

(5) Information or a document shall not be treated as coming to a legal practitioner in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given with a view to furthering any criminal purpose.

16. (1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 15, where it is reasonably required for the purpose of discharging its functions or ensuring compliance with any financial services legislation, the Authority may, by notice in writing given to a person specified in subsection (2), require such person—

- (a) to provide specified information or information of a specified description; or
- (b) to produce specified documents or documents of a specified description.

(2) A notice under subsection (1)—

- (a) may be issued to—
 - (i) a licensee;
 - (ii) a former licensee;
 - (iii) a person whom the Authority reasonably believes to be carrying on, or to have at any time carried on, unauthorised financial services business;
 - (iv) a person connected with a person specified in sub-paragraph (i), (ii) or (iii);
 - (v) a person reasonably believed by the Authority to have the information or documents to which the notice relates; and
- (b) shall specify the period within which the information or document is to be provided or produced; and

(c) may require that the information is to be provided to, or the documents are to be produced to, such person as may be specified in the notice.

(3) The Authority may require that the information, pursuant to this section—

(a) be provided in such form as the Authority may require; and

(b) be verified or authenticated in such manner as it may reasonably require.

(4) The Authority may take copies or extracts of any document produced pursuant to this section.

(5) Where a person claims a lien on a document, the production of the document pursuant to this section is without prejudice to his lien.

(6) The provisions of section 15 (2) to (5) shall apply to providing of information or production of documents under this section.

17. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Authority shall take such steps as it considers appropriate to co-operate with—

(a) foreign regulatory authorities; or

(b) persons, in or outside Seychelles, who have functions in relation to the prevention or detection of financial crime, including money laundering, financing of terrorism, misconduct in, or misuse of information relating to, financial markets and offences involving fraud or dishonesty.

(2) Co-operation may include—

(a) the sharing of documents and information which the Authority is not prevented by this Act or any other enactment from disclosing; and

(b) making request for assistance to foreign regulatory authorities;

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as compelling the Authority to provide any assistance relating to matters of taxation.

18. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Authority may, on the written request of a foreign regulatory authority and subject to such conditions as it considers appropriate—

(a) exercise the power conferred on it by section 16;

(b) appoint one or more competent persons as examiners to investigate any matter;

(c) disclose information, or provide documentation, to the foreign regulatory authority, whether such information or documentation is already in the Authority's possession or whether it is obtained pursuant to the exercise of a power under paragraph (a), or (b)

(2) The Authority shall not exercise the power conferred on it under subsection (1), unless it is of the opinion that the information or documentation to which the request relates, or the investigation is sought, is reasonably required by the foreign regulatory authority for the purposes of its regulatory functions.

(3) Section 25 (2) to (4) shall apply to an examiner appointed under subsection (1)(b).

(4) The Authority shall, in deciding whether or not to exercise the powers conferred on it under subsection (1), take into account, in particular—

- (a) whether corresponding assistance would be given to the Authority in the country or territory of the foreign regulatory authority concerned;
- (b) the nature and seriousness of the matter to which the request for assistance relates, the importance of the assistance to be provided in Seychelles and whether the assistance can be obtained by other means;
- (c) the relevance of the information or documentation to the enquiries to which the request relates; and
- (d) whether it is otherwise appropriate in the public interest to provide the assistance sought.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(a), the Authority may require the foreign regulatory authority making the request to give a Written undertaking, in such form as the Authority may require, to provide corresponding assistance to the Authority.

(6) If a foreign regulatory authority fails to comply with a requirement of the Authority made under subsection (5), the Authority may refuse to provide the assistance sought by the foreign regulatory authority.

(7) The Authority may exercise its powers under this section, unless—

- (a) the foreign regulatory authority undertakes to make such contribution towards the cost of exercising its powers as the Authority considers appropriate;
- (b) it is satisfied that the foreign regulatory authority is subject to adequate legal restrictions on further disclosure of the information and documents and that it will not, without the written permission of the Authority obtained at the time of the request or thereafter—
 - (i) disclose any information or documents provided to it to any person other than an officer or employee of the foreign regulatory authority engaged in the exercise of its supervisory functions; or
 - (ii) take any action on information or documents provided to it; and
- (c) it has received satisfactory assurances from the foreign regulatory authority that any information provided to it will not be used in any criminal proceedings against the person furnishing it, other than proceedings for an offence of perjury or any equivalent offence.

19. (1) Where assistance to a foreign regulatory authority is provided in accordance with the provisions of this Act or pursuant to the provisions of any financial services legislation which makes no provision as to costs, the resulting cost of that assistance shall be borne by the foreign regulatory authority requesting the assistance in a similar manner to a claim for costs submitted to the Court.

(2) A person who discloses or produces information as permitted or required by this Act is deemed not to be in contravention of any enactment, rule of law, agreement or professional code of conduct to which that person is subject and no civil, criminal disciplinary proceedings shall lie against him in respect thereof

20. (1) For the purposes of this section, "protected information" means the information which—

- (a) relates to the affairs of the Authority; or
- (b) relates to the business or other affairs of any person, and is acquired by a person falling with subsection (2), for the purposes of, or in the discharge of, it's or his functions under this Act or any financial services legislation, and includes any information that is obtained from a foreign regulatory authority or a law enforcement authority.

(2) This section applies to the following persons, namely—

- (a) the Authority;
- (b) a Member, including the Chief Executive Officer;
- (c) an employee of the Authority;
- (d) a person appointed as an examiner under section 25;
- (e) any other person acting under authority of the Authority; and
- (f) an employee of a person specified in paragraphs (d) and (e).

(3) The information which—

- (a) is available to the public from any other source; or
- (b) is disclosed in a summary or in statistics expressed in a manner that does not enable the identity or particular persons to whom the information relates to be determined, is not protected information under this section.

(4) Subject to section 22, protected information shall not be disclosed by a recipient of that information, without the consent of—

- (a) the person from whom he obtained the information; and
- (b) if different, the person to whom it relates.

21. (1) Section 20 shall not apply to a disclosure—

- (a) required or permitted by a court of competent jurisdiction in Seychelles;
- (b) required or permitted by this Act or any other Seychelles law;
- (c) to any person for the purpose of discharging any function or exercising any power under this Act or any financial services legislation, in either case whether the function or power is of the person disclosing the information of the Authority or the Board;
- (d) to a foreign regulatory authority in accordance with section 18;

- (e) lawfully made to a person with a view to the institution, or for the purpose, of—
 - (i) criminal proceedings;
 - (ii) disciplinary proceedings, whether within or outside Seychelles, relating to the discharge by a legal practitioner, auditor, accountant, valuer or actuary of his professional duties; or
- (f) for the purpose of legal proceedings in connection with—
 - (i) the winding up or dissolution of a licensee, a former licensee or a person who has carried on unauthorised financial services business; or
 - (ii) the appointment or duties of a receiver of a licensee, a former licensee or a person who has carried on unauthorised financial services business.

22. The Authority may issue guidelines concerning the disclosure of information under any provisions of this Act.

PART V - COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT

23. (1) A licensee shall establish and maintain adequate systems and controls' for ensuring its compliance with the requirements of, and its obligations under—

- (a) this Act and any financial services legislation;
- (b) any code, direction or guideline issued by the Authority that apply to the licensee; and
- (c) any directive issued by the Commission that apply to the licensee.

(2) A licensee shall appoint an individual approved by the Authority as its compliance officer who shall be appointed to oversee the compliance of provisions of subsection (1).

(3) The Authority shall not approve an individual as a licensee's compliance officer unless it is satisfied that the individual satisfies the Authority's' fit and proper criteria.

(4) The Authority may, by notice in writing to a licensee, revoke its approval under subsection (2) if it is of the opinion that the individual no longer satisfies the Authority's fit and proper criteria and in such case the licensee shall appoint a new compliance officer in accordance with this section.

(5) Without prejudice to subsection (2), the compliance officer of a licensee shall be responsible for—

- (a) establishing and maintaining a program for training the staff and other officers of the licensee concerning the licensees' compliance function, and their individual responsibilities with respect thereto; and
- (b) overseeing the implementation of the procedures and compliance manual.

(6) A person appointed by a licensee to serve as its compliance officer for the purpose of Anti-Money Laundering Act may, with the approval of the Authority, be appointed to oversee the licensees' compliance function under subsection (2).

24. (1) In this section, "relevant person" means -

- (a) a licensee;
- (b) a former licensee; and
- (c) a subsidiary or holding company of a licensee or of a former licensee.

(2) The Authority may, for the purposes specified in subsection (3) —

- (a) inspect the premises and business, including the procedures, systems and controls, of a relevant person;
- (b) inspect the assets including monies, belonging to or in the possession or control of a relevant person;
- (c) examine and make copies of documents belonging to or in the possession or control of a relevant person that, in the opinion of the Authority, relate to the carrying on of financial services business by the relevant persons;
- (d) seek information and explanations from the officers, employees, agents and representatives of relevant person, whether verbally or in writing, and whether in preparation for during or after an inspection.

(3) An inspection may be undertaken for purposes of the supervision of financial services business carried on, in or from within Seychelles, including monitoring and assessing a relevant person's compliance with—

- (a) this Act and other financial services legislations; and
- (b) any code, direction or guidelines issued by the Authority that apply to a licensee.
- (c) any directive issued by the Commission that apply to a licensee.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the Authority shall give reasonable notice to the concerned person of its intention to exercise its powers under subsection (2).

(5) The Authority may, where it appears to the Authority, that the circumstances justify, exercise its powers under subsection (2) without giving notice to the relevant person.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Authority may, upon request of a foreign regulatory authority, permit the foreign regulatory authority to take part in an inspection undertaken by the Authority under this section.

(7) The Authority shall not permit a foreign regulatory authority to take part in an inspection under subsection (6) unless the Authority is of the opinion that the participation of the foreign regulatory authority is reasonably required—

- (a) for the effective supervision of a licensee; or
- (b) for the purpose of the regulatory functions of the foreign regulatory authority

(8) The Authority may, in deciding whether to permit a foreign regulatory authority to take part in an inspection under subsection (6), take into account, in particular, whether the foreign regulatory authority is subject to adequate. legal restrictions on further disclosure and, in particular, whether it is likely without the written permission of the Authority—

- (a) to disclose information obtained or documents examined or obtained during the compliance function to any person other than an officer or employee of the authority engaged in prudential supervision; or
- (b) to take any action on information obtained or documents examined or obtained during the compliance inspection.

(9) Nothing in this section shall limit the Authority's powers under this Part or Part IV.

25. (1) The Authority may appoint one or more competent persons as examiners to conduct an investigation on its behalf—

- (a) where it appears to the Authority on reasonable grounds that there are, or may be, grounds for taking enforcement action against a licensee; or
- (b) where it appears to the Authority on reasonable grounds that any person is carrying on, or has carried on, unauthorised financial services business.

(2) The matters investigated by an examiner appointed under subsection (1) may include one or more of the following—

- (a) the nature, conduct or state of the business of the person under investigation;
- (b) a particular aspect of the business of the person under investigation;
- (c) the ownership or control of the person under investigation;
- (d) in the case of a licensee, whether there are grounds for taking enforcement action against a licensee; and
- (e) in the case of any other person, whether the person under investigation is carrying on, or has carried on, unauthorised financial services business.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), an examiner appointed under this section shall have the powers of the Authority under sections 15 and 16.

(4) The Authority may give such directions to the examiner as it may consider appropriate, in relation to—

- (a) the scope of the investigation;
- (b) the period for the conduct of the investigation; and
- (c) the manner in which the examiner shall report to him.

(5) The examiner appointed under subsection (1) may, if he considers it necessary for the purposes of investigation, also investigate the business of any person who is, or at any relevant time has been—

- (a) a member of the group of which the person under investigation is a part; or

(b) a partnership of which the person under investigation is a member.

(6) Where the person appointed as an examiner under this section is not a member or officer of the Authority he shall, unless otherwise agreed between him and the Authority, be paid such remuneration on such terms as the Authority may determine.

(7) The examiner shall submit a report of investigation to the Authority

26. (1) Where the Authority is entitled to take enforcement action against a licensee, the Authority may issue a directive—

(a) Imposing a prohibition, restriction or limitation on the financial services business undertaken by the licensee, including—

(i) that the licensee shall cease to engage in any type of business, or

(ii) that the licensee shall not enter into any new contracts for any type of business;

(b) requiring that any director, key employee or person having functions in relation to a licensee be removed and replaced by another person acceptable to the Authority; or

(c) requiring the licensee to take such other action as the Authority considers may be necessary to protect the property of, or in the custody, possession or control of, the licensee or to protect customers or creditors or potential customers or creditors of the licensee.

(2) The Authority shall give sufficient grounds to justify the issue of the directive and afford the person to whom this section applies sufficient opportunity to show cause why the directive should not be enforced against him.

27. (1) The Authority may take enforcement action against a licensee if—

(a) it appears to the Authority that—

(i) the licensee has contravened or is in contravention of this Act, or any other financial services legislation or any code or guideline issued by the Authority;

(ii) the licensee has contravened or is in contravention of the Anti-Money Laundering Act or any other laws of Seychelles;

(iii) the licensee is carrying on or is likely to carry on business in a manner detrimental to the public; interest or to the interest of clients, creditors or investors;

(iv) the licensee is or is likely to become insolvent;

(v) the licensee has failed to commence or ceased to carry on the financial services business for which it was licensed;

(vi) the licensee has failed to comply with a direction given to it by the Authority;

(vii) the licensee has breached or is in breach of any term or condition of its licence;

- (viii) a person having a share or interest in the licensee, whether beneficial or legal, or any director or senior officer of the licensee, is not a fit and proper person to have an interest in or be concerned with the management of a licence as the case may be;
 - (ix) a licensee or another relevant person has refused or failed to cooperate with the Authority on an inspection conducted by the Authority under section 24;
 - (x) the licensee has provided the Authority with false, inaccurate or misleading information, whether on making an application for a licence or subsequent to the issue of the licence;
 - (xi) the licensee or a director or senior officer of the licensee has been convicted of an offence involving fraud, theft or dishonesty; or
 - (xii) such action is necessary or desirable to protect the good repute of Seychelles as an international financial center.
- (b) the licensee is compulsorily wound up or passes a resolution for voluntary winding up or is dissolved;
 - (c) a receiver has been appointed in respect of the financial services business carried on by the licensee or possession has been taken of any of its property by or on behalf of the holder of a debenture secured by a registered charge;
 - (d) the licensee fails to pay any penalties imposed under this Act, made on or before the date on which the penalty is due to be paid; or
 - (e) the licensee fails to comply with a directive issued by the Authority under section 26.

(2) Without prejudice to any powers specified in any financial services legislation, if the Authority is entitled to take enforcement action under subsection (1), it may—

- (a) revoke or suspend the licensee's licence under section 29;
- (b) appoint an examiner to conduct an investigation under section 25;
- (c) issue a direction under section 32;
- (d) initiate such investigation as may be necessary to ensure compliance with this Act or any financial services legislation;
- (e) impose such administrative penalties on the licensee as may be provided for in this Act or any other financial services legislation;
- (f) require the licensee to pay such costs and expenses as are incurred by the Authority in the taking of enforcement action; or
- (g) suspend the application of the fit and proper status of an individual.
- (h) issue a directive under section 26.

(3) Where a power exercisable by the Authority under subsection (2) is also exercisable by it under any financial services legislation, such power may be exercised either under this Act or under other financial services legislation, but not both.

28. (1) Where the Authority is entitled to take enforcement action against a licensee or former licensee, the Authority may issue a public statement in such manner as it considers fit setting out the reasons for the enforcement action and the enforcement action that it intends to take, or has taken, against the licensee or former licensee.

(2) The Authority may, where it considers it in the public interest to do so, issue a public statement in such manner as it considers fit with respect to—

- (a) any person who, in the opinion of the Authority, is carrying on, intends to carry on or is likely to carry on, unauthorised financial services business including any action that the Authority intends to take or has taken against that person;
- (b) any person who, not being a licensee, is holding himself out as a licensee;
- (c) any matter relating to financial services business where the Authority considers that the statement is desirable for –
 - (i) the protection of the public, whether within or outside Seychelles, against financial loss arising out of the dishonesty, incompetence, malpractice or insolvency of persons engaged in financial services business in or from within Seychelles;
 - (ii) the protection and enhancement of the reputation of Seychelles as a financial services center; and
 - (iii) the reduction of crime and other unlawful activities relating to financial services business

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where a public statement is to be issued under this section in relation to a licensee or former licensee, the Authority shall give that person 3 days written notice of its intention to issue the public statement and the reasons for the issue of the statement.

(4) If the Authority is of the opinion that it is necessary to do so, to protect the public interest or the interests of any of the clients, creditors or investors of a licensee or former licensee, it may issue a public statement under subsection (3) without notice to the licensee or former licensee or with such shorter period as it considers appropriate.

29. (1) The Authority may, at any time, revoke or suspend the licence of a licensee if it is entitled to take enforcement action against the licensee under section 27.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the period of suspension of a licence under subsection (1) shall not exceed 30 days.

(3) The Court may, if it is satisfied that it is in the public interest to do so, on the application of the Authority, extend the period of suspension of the licence under this section not exceeding 30 days each, as it may consider appropriate.

(4) The Authority shall, before suspending or revoking a licence under subsection (1), give written notice to the licensee providing—

- (a) the grounds upon which it intends to suspend or revoke the licence; and
- (b) that unless the licensee, by written notice filed with the Authority, shows good reason why its licence should not be suspended or revoked, the licence shall be suspended or revoked on a date not less than fourteen days after the date of notice.

(5) The Authority shall not revoke or suspend a license if it is satisfied that the licensee has shown good cause to the satisfaction of the Authority why its license shall not be suspended or revoked.

30. (1) A licensee may, at any time, surrender its licence by giving prior notice in writing to the Authority.

(2) The notice shall provide a true and full disclosure of the reasons to satisfy the Authority why the licensee wants to surrender the licence.

(3) The notice under subsection (1) shall also include—

- (i) the date on which the termination is to be effective;
- (ii) the measures taken by the licensee for the discharge of its liabilities and transfer of the business of the clients;
- (iii) such other matters as may be required by the Authority.

(4) The notice under subsection (1) shall be given not less than 30 days before the surrender of the licence.

(5) The Authority may, within 30 days of receiving any notice object in writing to the surrender.

(6) Where the Authority raises an objection under subsection (5), the licensee shall take such action as may be determined by the Authority.

(7) Where a licensee fails to give adequate and sufficient notice under this section, the surrender shall not take effect until 30 days after the notice is received by the Authority.

31. (1) The Authority may apply to the Court for protection order under this section with respect to—

- (a) a licensee whose licence is about to be revoked or where the Authority is entitled to take enforcement action against him under section 27;
- (b) a former licensee; or
- (c) a person carrying on unauthorised financial services business.

(2) On an application made under subsection (1), the Court may make such order as it considers necessary to protect or preserve the business or property of the person with respect to whom the application is made, or the interest of his clients, investors, creditors or the public, including an order-

- (a) preventing the person concerned or any other person from transferring, disposing of or otherwise dealing with property belonging to him or in his custody or control;
- (b) appointing an administrator to take over and manage the financial services business then carried on by the person concerned or carried on by him immediately before the revocation or suspension of the licence, as the case may be;
- (c) in the case of a company, that the Company considered to be wound up by the Court or be subject to the supervision of the Court under laws relating to winding up;

- (d) granting the Authority, a search warrant;
- (e) where the person concerned is in contravention of this Act or any financial services legislation, requiring the person concerned to take such action, or to refrain from taking such action, as is necessary to bring him back into compliance with this Act or the financial services legislation.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c), the Authority may apply to the Court for the winding up of a company and in that regard shall be treated as if it were one of the persons entitled to apply to the Court for the winding up of a company under laws relating to winding up.

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (2)(b), an order made under that subsection shall specify the powers of the administrator in relation to the financial services business of the licensee or former licensee and may—

- (a) require an administrator to provide security to the satisfaction of the Court;
- (b) fix and provide for the remuneration of the administrator; and
- (c) require such persons as it considers necessary to appear before the Court for the purposes of giving information or producing records concerning the regulated person or the business carried on by the regulated person

(5) An order made under subsection (2)(b) shall provide for reports to be submitted by the administrator to the Court and to the Authority.

(6) The Court may on its own motion or on the application of the Authority or the administrator—

- (a) give directions to the administrator concerning the exercise of his powers;
- (b) vary the powers of the administrator; or
- (c) terminate the appointment of the administrator

(7) An application under subsection (1) may be made

- (a) on an ex parte basis or upon such notice as the Court may require; and
- (b) before the Authority has given notice of intention to revoke a licence or certificate under section 29.

32. (1) Where the Authority has reasonable cause to believe that—

- (a) a licensee has contravened or is likely to contravene this Act, and other financial services legislation, any code, guideline or any other laws of Seychelles;
- (b) a licensee is conducting its affairs in an improper or financially unsound manner;

- (c) a direction is necessary or desirable to protect the interests of clients of a licensee, the Authority may issue a direction to the licensee as it considers appropriate.
- (2) The direction under this section may specify the time by which, or period during which, it shall be complied with.
- (3) The licensee who has been given direction shall comply with the direction.
- (4) The Authority may revoke a direction under this section at any time.
- (5) Any licensee who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable to a penalty of SCR2000 per day or part thereof during which the contravention continues.

PART VI - GENERAL SUPERVISORY POWERS

33. (1) The Authority may issue codes and guidelines not inconsistent with this Act or other financial services legislations.

- (2) A code or guideline may extend to—
 - (a) licensees generally, or to specific types or descriptions of licensees;
 - (b) persons performing such functions on behalf of licensees including directors, senior officers and compliance officers.
- (3) Any code or guideline issued under any financial services legislation prior to the coming into force of this Act shall continue in operation as if it was issued pursuant to this section.
- (4) Every person shall comply with any code or guideline issued by the Authority.
- (5) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to fine not exceeding SCR200, 000.

34. (1) In this section, “condition” means a condition attached to a licence issued, or an approval granted under any financial services legislation and includes a condition, as varied in accordance with this section.

(2) A licence issued or an approval granted under a regulatory legislation may be used or granted subject to such conditions as the Authority may consider appropriate.

(3) If a licence is issued, or an approval granted, subject to one or more conditions, the Authority may —

- (a) together with the licence or approval, issue a written notice specifying a further condition or conditions; and
- (b) if in respect of any conditions, it considers that is in the public interest to do so, state those conditions on the licence or approval.
- (4) The Authority may, upon giving reasonable written notice to a licensee, at any time vary or revoke any condition.

(5) A licensee may apply to the Authority in writing for a condition to be revoked or varied and if the Authority is satisfied that the condition is no longer necessary or should be varied, it may revoke or vary the condition.

(6) Where the Authority revokes or varies a condition or imposes a new condition, the licensee shall, if requested to do so by the Authority, deliver its licence to the Authority

(7) A licensee aggrieved by the issuance of a condition under subsection (4) shall have the right to show cause before a specified date, and the Authority shall take into account the concerns of the licensee in its decision whether to continue with the issuance of a condition under subsection (4).

(8) The Authority may issue a condition under subsection (4) taking effect immediately and dispensing with the requirements of subsection (7), if the Authority believes it is in the public interest to do so.

(9) This section shall apply without prejudice to any power of the Authority under any regulatory legislation

(10) Any person who contravenes subsection (6), commits an offence and is liable to a penalty of SCR.2000 per day or part thereof during which the contravention continues.

35. Unless otherwise provided by this Act or any financial services legislation, the Authority may –

- (a) exempt specified persons or specified classes of persons from the requirement to obtain a license under a financial services legislation to undertake an activity for which a licence would otherwise be required;
- (b) exempt specified licensees or specified classes of licensees from requirements under this Act or other financial services legislation;
- (c) provide for the circumstances in which the Authority may exempt specified licensees or specified classes of licensees from specified requirements under this Act or other financial services legislation.

36. (1) The Authority may, by publication in such manner as may be specified in the regulations, approve forms for the purposes of the regulatory legislation.

(2) Where, pursuant to subsection (1), the Authority has published an approved form with respect to a document, the document shall—

- (a) be in the form of, and contain the information specified in, the approved form; and
- (b) have attached to it such documents as may be specified in the approved form.

PART VII - ADMINISTRATIVE AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

37. (1) A Member who has any direct or indirect personal, professional, or pecuniary interest in any matter which falls to be considered by the Board shall as soon as reasonably practicable, complete a declaration of interest in the form prescribed in the Third Schedule and submit it to the secretary appointed under section 5 (3) who shall, before the commencement of the meeting at which the subject matter of the declaration is to be considered, bring the form to the attention of all Members.

(2) The Member who has declared an interest under subsection (1) shall withdraw from any meeting whilst the matter in respect of which he has declared an interest is being considered by the Board and shall not express any view or take part in any vote concerning the matter.
